Key knowledge

Green belt land is protected land (countryside, agricultural or under-developed land) that cannot be used to build housing or services on. There are 14 Green Belt zones in the UK. There is a Green Belt zone outside of Bournemouth.

Key knowledge – settlements change over time

No town or village remains the same for ever. The function of the settlement may change (this can be transport, housing, shopping, agriculture etc.), the land use of the settlement and the number and type of people living in the settlement.
