

Vocabulary	Meaning
Internet	A network that connects millions of computers worldwide
Computer	A technological device for working with information
Information	Facts and details about a subject
False	Information that is not true
Send	To pass on a message
Locate	To find the position of
Tools	Things we use to perform a task
Create	To make something
Save	Store information for later
Search	To look for something
Import	To bring in something
Research	To find out information about something new
Tab	A second page that can be opened when using the internet
Key word	A special word
Copy	To make another of something
Tools	Things we use to perform a task
Clipart	A pre-made image
Drag	The action of moving something

Key knowledge – Address Book

A place on a computer for storing email addresses

Key knowledge – Keyboard

The keys that help you write on a computer

Key knowledge – Email

A message sent electronically from one computer to another