

Vocabulary	Meaning
privacy	information that isn't shared with everyone permission	the action of officially allowing someone else to do a particular thing third party	an application or website outside the platform being used settings	where you can personalise your account or device feature	a significant characteristic domain	the address that you type into a web browser to get to a website message	a point that is trying to be delivered design	plan (something) with a specific purpose in mind website	a set of related web pages located under a single domain name page	a section of stored data, especially that which can be displayed on a screen at one time folder	a dictionary containing related files or documents link	a code or instruction which connects one part to another shortcut	a record of a file or a website to enable quick access hyperlink	a code or instruction which connects one part of a program or an element in a list to another

Key knowledge – What is a website?

A website is a set of related web pages located under a single domain name. A domain is the address you type in to access the website.

Key knowledge – What are the design features of a web page?

Key knowledge - How to plan your webpage

Think of what pages you will want to have on your webpage. Mind map your ideas. Use the editing option to colour coordinate your pages.

