

Vocabulary	Meaning
portrait	a drawing or painting of someone self portrait	a drawing or painting of yourself detail	an individual part of the portrait material	the things used to create artwork warm colours	colours associated with heat such as red, orange, yellow cool colours	colours associated with cold such as blue, green, purple the blue period	shades of blue and blue-green with other colours used sparingly the rose period	warm, cheerful orange and pink colours collage	pieces cut out and stuck together to make new artwork cubism	a style of art which aims to show all the possible viewpoints of a person or object all at once striking	attracting attention by reason of being unusual, bright or eye catching watercolours	a type of pain used with water sweep	a side to side motion used in painting dab	a pressing motion using in painting background	the parts of an image that are in the back lines	a stroke made with pencil, pen or tool monochrome	black and white

Key knowledge – Famous artists

Pablo Picasso was a famous artist, he created many different types of art including portraits and self portraits

The blue period he used shades of blue for his paintings

The rose period he used shades of pink for his paintings

Cubism a style of art which aims to show all the possible viewpoints of a person or object all at once

Paul Klee was a famous artist. His paintings were in the style of cubism. He painted some portraits.

Leonardo da Vinci was a famous artist. He painted some portraits the most famous one is called the Mona Lisa.

